First, I want to discuss the concept of bushido and the term itself, for both the Western and Japanese understandings of this term and the associated set of moral values have been terribly distorted in the written record in both A Death of Honor and as well by the events of modern history.

Christianity grafted upon Bushido will be the finest product of the world.

They and their descendants were, for two and a half centuries, hereditary ret

Nitobe was born in during the turbulence of the bakumatsu [d] era, but almost immediately embarked upon an educational career that in a sense isolated him from the main events of the age. Payne is a biotech researcher who finds a naked corpse in his apartment one night.

In fact, there is no discrepancy between these two things at all. Purity of motive, sincerity in the extreme, seems to be what Tsunetomo is .
