I had to read this in middle school. It appears that he is deeply troubled by the affair he had with Letty Phelps, the maid.

The authors describe the interconnectedness of the geological, biological, and chemical sciences. I read this book when I was very young. One of the poorer responses:

The only reasonably certain Vermont connection is that his father was born in Vermont. Pick a style below, and copy the text for your bibliography. This book is very depressing and somewhat graphic in certain ways.
