It is now the time for you to put your whole trust in God and prove Him wholly true. The Lord shall raise them up when conditions are met. At the close of the service all those who were sick and in pain and had come for healing were requested to rise if possible.

As I was returning from my first visit with Beth, I smiled as a particular phrase came to my mind. Man of sorrows, with His stripes I am healed In spirit, mind and body, for I am Quickened and cleansed by the blood of the Lamb. You can save him from a thousand doctors. One day I had been visiting the sick, and was with a friend of mine, an architect, when I saw a young man from his office coming down the road in a car, and holding in his hand a telegram. When that comes upon you, the Holy Ghost will begin to work, and the Lord will raise you up. Do not ever any turn away from these clear instructions they are in a place of tremendous danger. You will find that if you dare trust Him, He will never fail.
