Synopsis Roald Dahl's Switch Bitch features four tales of seduction and suspense from the grand master of the short story. It includes stories of Bitchy through the ages--literally! Switch Bitch is a collection of four short stories about sex, connected by the same protagonist, Oswald Hendryks Cornelius, whose hilarious or disturbing adventures were later developed into a delicious novel - My Uncle Oswald. This series spawned two spin-off collections: Roald Dahl once boasted, with a typical lack of modesty, that his name was known to virtually every child in the western world, but he might also have added that he was a familiar figure to quite a few adults as well. Dahl is a clever writer, and Switch Bitch is a compulsive read, and presents a well-rounded portrait of this unique writer. The story is published as A Piece of Cake.
