Would that I had stopped reading I had high hopes for this, one of the earlier examples of vampire literature, originally serialised as a 'penny dreadful'. Probably the most famous of the classic Penny Dreadfuls you can read in its entirety with the possible exception of A String of Pearls, the inspiration for Sweeney Todd. If it were as, indeed, it seemed to be the case, that bodily decay in him was not the result of death, and that the rays "of the cold chaste moon" were sufficient to revivify him, who shall say when that process is to end!
