June Update – Somaly Mam has resigned from foundation bearing her name, and the foundation has launched an internal investigation into claims that substantial parts of her story are not true. This is illustrated dramatically in the story. Quotes from BoysForSale. Finks was also very careful with what he revealed in the early parts of the book as if he couldn't bring himself to describe any of the sexual and other abuses that were being inflicted on the boys, but towards the end, it felt as if he changed tack and over-described. Carissa Phelps was a runner.

Dennis Paris provides a rare and detailed account of how a specific type of trafficking was found this great thread at <http://>
