Poseidon was the personification of the incomprehensibly powerful and capricious seas! If we cannot be forever secure and content, we can at least know true friendship and nourishing companionship. Even the Egyptian pyramids will eventually wear away to nothing—rather quickly on a geological time scale!

To the contrary, he and Alfred Russel Wallace offered the first glimpse of the It should not surprise us that young people en masse are turning their backs on religion and that the New Atheists are riding bestseller lists when "the gospel", God's supposed Great News for all of humanity, is reduced to this If we miss this we miss. If you profess to believe in all this unnatural activity, you and your fellow believers get to spend an unnaturally long time in an unnaturally boring paradise while everyone else suffers an unnatural, torturous hell forever. And why do different peoples answer these questions in different ways? There can be no argument whether or not this reality exists.
