Everyone should read this book! My friends are so angry because they don't know how I have all this high quality ebooks.

Meredith works as an assistant district attorney and is Michael's birthmother. Her strength lies in her ability to capture the voice of children with thoughtful insight into how they think and what they feel. Meredith Hunter wants a relationship with her son but she doesn't count on having feelings for h Luke Rayburn still struggles with being a single father to his adopted teenage son three years after his wife's death. Typical reaction to teenagers.

The father of the boy is very conflicted about this son and his birthmother. And there is even the HEA ending we all wanted.
