The sweet fruit of education will be you walking across that stage, listening to your family scream your name, and receiving your degree. Throughout middle school and high school, you were always the daredevil to my goody two-shoes. But over these 20 years, we always came back to each other. Sorry, but copying text is forbidden on this website. I wish you casseroles, fruit salads and English muffins from helpful friends and family. I miss you so much Mom! Rest in the arms of God with Brad, your parents and sister. She's nobody's mother and look so young in any event for such a role, even though in conclusion, I think my mom is a nice person.
