It is always annoying when authors have their sex fantasies acted out in books. More importantly, there are a lot of characters, and even for an author as skilled as Hamilton, it's difficult to round them out sufficiently. When counting the first book, this story comes in at almost pages. I wasn't overwhelmed with new information for this world, so I was able to focus. This book picks up right where Pandora's Star leaves off, so you'll want to read that first before jumping into this one. Because of all of that padding and detail, the end of Unchained felt really rushed and didn't feel like a conclusion. Of the remaining characters whose viewpoints the narrator follows, Mellanie would have to be my favourite. The Guardians of Man Book 1. Authors can also promote their books pricing 99 cent.
