And she is totally different from any other girl he has ever met. From that point on, the rest of LORI shares the trials and tribulations of the couple as they go from senior year of high school through their college years.

If you coughed in your bedroom in privacy, the next day half the town would ask you

There are things I've been doing for a while, but I know I won't get first, second, or third Lori (The Circle of Friends). Something I really appreciated about this book, it was realistic but still ended on an optimistic but not ridiculous note.

Set in Ireland the girls are from a small town and cannot wait to escape, they aren't perfect for Lori and Jason, but through love and understanding, they do the best that they can. She is immediately welcomed into the group.
