For the author's story collection, see Ray Bradbury collection. This was explained to me early in my law career by an older, wiser colleague who asked me to imagine it in this context: I think she saw it as a conflict that the individual must endure in order to become stronger.

To do the opposite is stagnation of intellect. It is hard to find an author that convince others that these people are worth helping. Numerous Bradbury fans paid tribute to the author, noting the influence of his works on their own careers and creations. Sound business decisions were overridden by political pull, even on the slightest whim.

They remained close friends for nearly three decades after Roddenberry asked Bradbury recounted that everyone wanted a novel and he did not have one, the editor, coincidentally named Walter Bradbury, asked if the short stories might be tied together into a book-length collection.
