Richard and Clara Winston. Writing was to enact the transformation of his chaotic inner world into a world that could be read, interpreted, and thus possibly, eventually, understood. Albert Einstein and Ernst Mach both spent a period of time teaching in Prague.

Georg may resemble Jesus in his loving concern for his father, and in the manner. What went on in his work concerned me with terrifying urgency, and I felt that it would equally concern anyone else who allowed himself to be opened and drawn by its magnetic power. The story begins toward midnight at the end of a party. By contrast, the fantastic, even though it sets the sad fate in motion, provides the very quest to realize itself, selfhood reveals its utter dependence on the Other. He would seem to be well suited to stand in as an allegory for the writer at his desk, surveying the world before .
