Are you confused yet? Borges comes to mind immediately. Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep? I set to rearrange his perception around. I guess the satisfaction of such a resolution is individual-specific, but I found both of them a Inverted World (S.F. MASTERWORKS) lacking. Special thanks to Goodreads friend Manny Rayner for clarifying for me the scientific ideas contained within this novel before I wrote my review. He went there to set up a test generator and was never heard of. A most effective narrative device to drive the story and draw us into its unfolding. In retrospect, I think that might have been the only way as he himself was not sure how to end the book convincingly enough. The message he wanted to Inverted World (S.F. MASTERWORKS) was drastically different than I had expected while reading the book. It occurs to me suddenly to wonder if there's a link to a passage in Simone de Beauvoir's Les Mandarins.
