One song, "Top of the World," which Richard Carpenter had only visualized as album track, became an unexpected hit single and one of the most popular songs of the decade. A Song for You Reprise. According to Richard Carpenter, who co-wrote the song with John A Song For Youthe reason for the song's late release in the US was that he had misjudged the song's commercial appeal, but was proven wrong when the Carpenters' "Top of the World" became a hit in Japan in and Lynn Anderson 's cover reached number 2 on the US country charts in

Forotheruses,seeASongforYoudisambiguation.Even the two cuts that reach back into the past -- the soft jazz instrumental "Flat Baroque," a vintage Richard Carpenter composition that he resurrected for this release, and "Bless the Beasts and the Children," the B-side of "Superstar" from more than a year earlier written A Song For You a Stanley Kramer movie -- slot in perfectly among the new songs. He was almost always in a work environment
