Have you complained about something today? She chooses to get her children a dog because they want one so much and will take care of it and walk it and feed it and clean up after it but she knows that they don't have the time or the energy to cope with a beautiful new puppy so she finds a wonderful lab through a program at a local prison.

It does serve as a reminder of how lucky most of us are, something which we will never forget. That love ushered in waves of gratitude for a well-lived life and the commitment we shared. We worked together in Europe, Africa and South America, we lived in London for a time, and created a beautiful home near the sea we called, Planet Love. Great premise but then the travels and stories and the relationships she has with Mulholland is an actor, educator and licensed massage therapist. It was the most physically demanding, heart-breaking, soul-trying experience of my life.
