I often use plenty of color annotation to highlight salient points. The search for truth requires the courage to admit you are wrong, or to say your friends and family are wrong.

A good way to cultivate your thinking skills is to use your creative thinking to its essence. This small, compelling book is more about the sociology of thinking than a how-to book on the logical mechanics of thinking. Alternatively, take small steps like learning a new word each day or trying a new sport, to strengthen your brain.
