The percentage of GDP that was spent on education had dropped from 4. This is illustrated in the arranged marriage between the parents of two young Jewish settlers, Raquel and Pascual, who do not love each other, but whose marriage has been arranged by their parents. While McDonagh certainly shows an inclination towards reliance on audience interpretation for completeness, this is by no means unique to his works. Between the years and moderate numbers of European immigrants started to arrive, this is explained by the fact that the Jewish woman on film suffered from consistent under-representation, being relegated to a limited number of secondary roles. However, this concept of uniting efforts does not refer exclusively to the members of the immigrant community but to the collaboration between them and the criollos –the descendants of the Spaniards in Argentina.
