Apr 27, Charlene rated it it was amazing Shelves: One thing I also found very effective was the death count he placed in various places.

The ambulance driver and a second man carried the stretchertothesecond floor. To me this process necessarily entails some degree of fictionalization, or at the very least, a departure from an 'objective' history of AIDS in Europe and America. But in the end, it turned out I didn't need it. Along those lines, people don't care about 20, dead, but they The Band Played On care about one dying person.
