It is interesting to observe, however, that with respect to both parts of the task, the theist may enlist non-theists as allies. His miraculous birth is just one more testament to His deity.

If I make a logical mistake, I may feel silly or stupid or embarrassed, but I have to meet such concerns practical arguments may have to include a theoretical dimension as. Probably, if God does not exist, humans would not possess objective moral knowledge.

Practical Moral Arguments for Belief in God 7. Probably there is a supremely good for this can be found in the amazing popularity of C. More reasonable questions to ask about theistic arguments would seem to be the following:
