And yes, Dom Perignon is actually very good. We decided against keeping a male John Ray who is on the cover of the book and was our choice ultimately left us as we have three others and while they liked him as a puppy things were bound to get messy. So they jump at the idea of the three of them, along with their new partners, heading off on a holiday vacation.

Not only was this true but when he said it, it sounded like a humble understatement.

Secondly I have a Manger Workshop announcement: Brown the chicken on all sides until golden.

The colours of this salad are exquisite, deep browns and pinks. Add enough chicken stock to cook the rice according to your favorite method.
