Microsoft just forced me to install the new version of Skype. We'r not blocked by each. Thanks for your article. The "updated" interface is a joke, and other alternate programs work fine. No. They're so adamant to get everyone upgraded, they've stopped caring for the people who just don't have the hardware for Windows. You can watch natural phenomena unfold that would take too long with the unaided eye. You make a comment on the community site and instead of providing answers they now want to hand out trophies or kudos for contribution. So, bearing in mind my previous comment, I have signed up for Google Hangouts. I concur with Louis, at March 21, at 1: No way to show me just voicemails or missed calls.
