She was smart and independent and brave without being in any way foolish. If she asked about the scratches, he refused to answer .

The writing here seemed more down to earth and not quite as florid as the Carpat

She had gotten up and opened her window to let in the comforting sounds of the swamp—a world she could always count on, one she loved. This book also had great minor characters as .

As Drake romances and prepares Saria for what is to come, they are also investing in her childhood, her five much older brothers were often absent for long periods, and her father, in his later years, was a bitter, cantankerous alcoholic who largely ignored the unruly Saria. It is a testament to his strength that he has survived this long.
