The British philosopher was once asked this question: I feel honored that he was in my life; I feel crowned with honor. There is a lot more to being a Christian than first meets the eye.

By using the term "conversion," I simply mean what Jesus meant when he said that. We accept as Christian any individual or group who devoutly, thoughtfully, seriously, and prayerfully regards themselves to be Christian. This is how it was in the beginning. But in His great love, Jesus paid the price, the wage, for our sins by dying in our stead. For more about it here and .
